GIFT ACCEPTANCE POLICY

To protect the interests of the Columbus Public Library ("Library"), Columbus Library Foundation ("Foundation"), and the individuals and entities that support the Library, this policy will ensure that all gifts to, or for the use of, the Library are structured to be consistent with the mission and goals of the Library.

Donations to Columbus Public Library are welcomed and appreciated. The goal of this policy is to encourage donating without encumbering the Library with gifts that may prove to generate more cost than benefits or are not in keeping with the mission and goals of the Library.

This policy will enable the Library Board of Trustees, The Library Foundation Board, and staff to respond promptly, and in the affirmative where possible, to all gifts offered by prospective donors. It is understood that, except where stated otherwise, this policy is intended as a guideline, and flexibility shall be maintained as some gift situations can be complex, and decisions made only after careful consideration of a number of interrelated factors. Therefore, this policy will, in some instances, require or allow that the Library Board of Trustees, The Library Foundation Board, and/or staff consider the merits of a particular gift.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Gifts of materials and subscriptions will be reviewed and handled per the Library Materials Selection Policy.

Anonymous gifts from individuals or entities may be accepted. Except as may otherwise be required by law, if requested, the Library and Foundation shall maintain the highest confidentiality standards for all donor files and records. Such files and records may be used only by the Library and Foundation, and their officers, trustees, employees, and volunteers.

Undesignated cash gifts amounting to less than $1000 will be deposited to the Library's revenue account, "Donations." Funds will be handled according to the Finance Policy of Columbus Public Library. The Library Leadership Committee shall review and evaluate all gifts made to the Library over $1000. If there is an immediate use for the funds, Leadership will designate them as such. Otherwise, they will be donated to the Foundation.

Non-monetary donations such as furniture, art, landscaping items, and equipment will be evaluated by the Library Director and Leadership Committee. The decision to accept such a donation is based on need, space, and appropriateness.

A tangible item with conditions attached will not be accepted by the Library. Once donated, items belong to the Library to use, archive, or dispose of as the Board and staff see fit. No tangible personal property shall be accepted if the gift obligates the Library to perpetual ownership.

Donated items that will require maintenance must be donated with a maintenance fund to provide for their upkeep.

An appropriate acknowledgement of gratitude will be given to any donor of an accepted gift.

Compliance with current IRS requirements in acknowledgement of such gifts shall be the responsibility of the Library Director and the Foundation Treasurer.

RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF GIFTS

No restrictions on how monetary gifts may be used by the Library will be honored without prior approval of the Library Board. No gift shall be accepted subject to restrictions that would prohibit, or tend to inhibit, other gifts.

Assets gifted, devised, or bequeathed to the Library shall not be used, by propaganda or otherwise, to attempt to influence legislation. No restriction placed upon an asset donated to the Foundation by the donor shall be honored that does not comply with the charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (or any subsequent corresponding provisions of the Internal Revenue Code).

LIBRARY AUDITORIUM AND MEETING ROOM POLICY

The meeting rooms have been provided to expand library services offered to the community; however, library programs have priority over any reservations made. When not needed for library-centered events, rooms may be available for community use. The following policies regulate community use and do not apply to library programs, government functions, or Friends of the Library events.

The meeting rooms will be available for programs and meetings of community groups and organizations. The use of the meeting rooms takes into account the library’s principles of non-competition with private businesses and non-involvement with political and religious groups. The meeting rooms may not be used for meetings which are commercial or for-profit in their purpose. Meetings hosted by a company or individual that promote, advertise, lead to the sale of a product or service, or recruiting are not permitted. Meeting rooms may not be used by organizations that seek to proselytize a specific religious or political agenda. The meeting rooms may not be used for private gatherings, any purpose which is illegal, or by any group whose conduct in the library is objectionable.

No admission fee may be charged, donations solicited, or collection taken at any meeting. Contracts may not be solicited nor be entered into in the meeting rooms. Use of the meeting rooms does not constitute sponsorship or endorsement by the Columbus Public Library. The library’s name may only be used to indicate location of the program and not as a referral for information about the program.

RESERVATIONS

The library reserves the right to review all applications before approval to determine whether or not that use falls within the meeting room guidelines. All decisions are at the discretion of the library leadership.

- Reservations will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis and will not be accepted more than 12 months in advance. Bookings for the next calendar year may be made beginning October 1.
- The library reserves the right to limit the number of meetings held by any group or organization to maximize availability of meeting room space to as many groups as possible.
- The reservation will not be confirmed until the library receives the signed application form.
- In the event of a cancellation, please contact the library no later than 24 hours before your scheduled start time. Failure to report cancellations may result in loss of meeting room privileges.
- The library reserves the right to take photographs of events for its own records and for future promotional materials.
- Every effort will be made to honor reservations that have been properly made; however, the library leadership reserves the right to cancel a reservation.

RESPONSIBILITY

- In accepting use of the rooms, the party making reservations will be held responsible for the proper conduct of those attending and for any expenses resulting from damage or theft.
- The Columbus Public Library will not be responsible for articles lost, stolen, or damaged, nor for personal injuries sustained on the premises. The library will not store equipment or materials for any group except when approved and arranged in advance with a member of library leadership.

- Group members are responsible for the set up and tear down of furniture and equipment for each function. Library staff may be consulted for questions or assistance locating what is needed for the meeting. The organizer of the event should plan to arrive first and let the Information Desk staff know that he/she is present.
- Upon one week's prior notice, the library may furnish available audio-visual equipment for use in meeting rooms. The group booking the meeting room is responsible for the replacement of lost or damaged equipment.
- The kitchen may be used in the auditorium. If food or refreshments are prepared or served in the auditorium, the group is responsible for all clean up.
- Groups are responsible for providing their own refreshments.
- The organizer of the event should notify the staff at the Information Desk at the conclusion of each event so library staff can inspect and secure the meeting room. If damage occurs as a result of the room remaining left unsecured due to failure to notify the library staff, the damage will be charged the same as if the damage occurred during the meeting.
- If the rooms are used for exhibits, a member of the sponsoring group must be present at all times when the room is open.
- The meeting rooms shall be left in the same condition in which they were found. Tables must be cleaned and all trash placed in the trash cans. Usage of the CPL logo must be approved by the director or the reference librarian two weeks prior to creation, display, and distribution of an item using the logo.

CLEAR SPACE:

Always maintain a minimum clear space around the logo to preserve its integrity. This clear space isolates the logo from competing graphic elements such as copy, photography, or background patterns that may interfere with the clarity of the signature.

COLOR:

Most projects will be printed in Pantone Matching System (PMS) colors: 282 (navy), 142 (gold/orange), 209 (maroon), 425 (gray). In some cases, solid black or white may be used.

RULES FOR USE:

Never re-typeset, re-create, or alter the CPL logo in any way. Any change made to the logo will cause inconsistencies with the brand image, ultimately diluting its impact. To maintain consistency, use only approved digital art files. In some cases permission may be given to use the symbol without the lettering.

Do not:

- Alter the logo.
- Stretch the logo.
- Change the font.
- Delete or add to any part of the logo.
- Change the proportions of the logo.
- Use any colors other than those specified above.
- Place the logo over images without sufficient contrast.
- Add a drop shadow to the logo.

FONTS:

To achieve a unified and consistent look across all communications and projects, one dominant typeface should be used: "Columbus Public" is in Helvetica Light, and "Library" and the tagline are in Helvetica Regular.

UNAUTHORIZED USE:

Unauthorized use of the CPL logo will result in confiscation of the items on which the logo appears, and possible legal action if the unauthorized use continues.

Adopted by the Library Board on 12/10/2013.

MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY

The purpose and objectives of the Columbus Public Library materials selection policy is to guide librarians and to inform the public about the principles upon which selections are made.

A policy cannot replace the judgment of librarians, but stating the intended policies will assist the staff at the Columbus Public Library in choosing from a vast array of available materials.

The Library sets as its major goals in materials selection: providing resources to fulfill our mission statement, the advancement of knowledge, the education and enlightenment of the people of the community, and the provision of recreational reading. The LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS as adopted by the American Library Association, is the foundation of our decision-making process.

RESPONSIBILITY OF MATERIAL SELECTION

Final responsibility for selection lies with the Library Director. The Library Director, however, may delegate selection duties to other staff members in their particular areas of responsibility.

USE OF THE LIBRARY'S MATERIAL

The Library recognizes that items may be viewed as controversial and that any given item may offend some patrons. Selection will not be made on the basis of any anticipated approval or disapproval, but solely on the merits of the work in relation to building a well-rounded collection and to serving the interest of library users.

Library materials will not be marked or identified to show approval or disapproval of the contents, and no catalogued book or other item will be sequestered, except for the express purpose of protecting it from vandalism or theft.

The use of rare and valued items may be controlled to the extent required to preserve them.

The responsibility for library usage by children rests with the parents and legal guardians. Selection will not be inhibited by the possibility that library resources may come into the possession of children.

GUIDELINES FOR SELECTION

All acquisitions, whether purchased or donated, are considered in terms of the following standards. An item need not meet all of the criteria in order to be accepted. When judging the quality of materials several standards and combinations of standards may be used.

General Criteria:

- Suitability of physical form for library use
- Insight into human and social conditions
- Suitability of subject and style for intended audience
- Present and potential relevance to community needs
- Appropriateness and effectiveness of medium to content
- Importance as a document of the times
- Relation to existing collection and other material on the subject

- Reputation and/or significance of author
- Attention given by critic, reviewers and public

Specific Criteria for the evaluation of works of information and opinion:

- Authority
- Comprehensiveness and depth of treatment
- Clarity, accuracy, and logic of presentation
- Statement of challenging or original point of view

Specific Criteria for the evaluation of works of imagination:

- Representation of important movement (literary or social), genre, trend, or
- National culture
- Vitality and originality
- Artistic presentation and experimentation
- Sustained interest
- Effective characterization
- Authenticity of historical, regional, or social setting

Items having widespread demand may or may not meet the general and specific criteria contained in this policy. However, demand is a valid factor in selection, and it shall be considered an important factor.

The collection should contain the various positions expressed on important, complicated, or controversial questions, including unpopular or unorthodox positions. The public library does not promote particular beliefs or views. It provides a resource where the individuals can examine issues freely and make their own decisions.

GIFT BOOKS AND OTHER GIFT ITEMS

Gifts are accepted subject to the following limitations:

1. The Library retains unconditional ownership of the gift.
2. The Library makes the final decision of its own use or other disposition of the gift. Gift additions of books and other items must meet the same selection criteria as purchased materials.
3. The Library reserves the right to decide the conditions of display, housing, and access to the materials.

When requested, a book plate will be included in each gift to identify the donor and the purpose of the donation.

Gift items not included in the Library's collection will be entrusted to the Columbus Library Foundation and/or the Friends of the Library for disposition.

MAINTAINING THE COLLECTION

Any policy concerning the selection of library materials should consider collection maintenance.

Collection maintenance as it is used here includes:

- Keeping materials in an attractive and serviceable condition, including mending, recovering, and rebinding or replacing as needed, and retaining original covers and cover information wherever possible;
- Systematic checking of subject areas for outdated materials and for gaps in coverage, adding, replacing, or updating with newer editions as needed;
- Weeding the collection by withdrawing outdated, worn, and surplus materials, as well as withdrawing less essential materials to relieve overcrowding; and
- Complete or spot inventory to determine materials that are lost or missing.

Adopted by the Columbus Library Board on 8/11/1988; Revised 3/14/2013.

MISSION STATEMENT

Columbus Public Library – Connecting People and Ideas.

First mission statement was adopted by the Library Board 11/10/1983. Current mission statement was adopted by the Library Board 4/11/2013.

NAMING POLICY

PURPOSE:

The Columbus Public Library Board, hereafter referred to as the “Library Board”, seeks to recognize persons who have supported the Columbus Public Library, hereafter referred to as the “Library” through a substantial financial gift by naming rooms, areas, or the building itself, in their honor.

GENERAL DEFINITIONS:

Naming Opportunities Due to a Financial Donation (cash or deferred). A room, area or the building itself may be named after the benefactor, or it may retain or be given a functional title following which the benefactor will be recorded as its sponsor.

Proposals for naming should be submitted in writing to the Library Director and should contain specific information in support thereof. If endorsed by the Library Director, the proposal will be forwarded to the Library Board for approval. Any and all contractual documents pertaining to the gift must be finalized before the naming right is finalized by the Library Board.

GUIDELINES FOR NAMING:

Naming rights will normally not extend beyond the normal life of the room, area, or the building. In the event the room, area, or building is significantly altered, the Library Board will have sole authority to determine whether or not the naming rights continue.

GENERAL GUIDELINES:

Unless the Library Director determines otherwise, a person’s or corporation's name may be used in naming a Library room/area only once.

Negotiations for the naming rights of the building, a particular room, or an area may be initiated by the Library Director, the benefactor, or other interested parties.

In the event that the flow of funds agreed to constitute a naming opportunity ceases before the agreed time, the Library Director may recommend to the Library Board that the use of the benefactor's name be discontinued. Any monies received will not be returned.

When a major building project is to be undertaken, a special naming policy may be proposed for various rooms, or parts of the building and its environs. Such a policy will require the endorsement of the Library Director for recommendation to the Library Board.

REQUEST PROCEDURE:

All requests for naming shall be submitted to the Library Director for approval by the Library Board. The Library Board will review each submitted naming nomination on its individual merits.

GIFT RECOGNITION REPLACEMENT- SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS:

A request to rename, add a second name or remove a name from a room shall conform to the following principles:

1. Any request to rename, add or remove a name within the Library should include documentation pertaining to the original approval and subsequent name change proposal. In the event that donor names must be removed for new construction, or in the event the Library is destroyed by natural disaster and is rebuilt to be used for its original purpose, recognition shall be replaced per the original agreement.
2. In the event a building, room, or area is drastically altered through construction, the Library Board shall reserve the right to add/alter gift recognition, including the room's naming.
3. When a named room/area has reached the end of its useful life and will be replaced or substantially renovated, the replaced or renovated space may be renamed in recognition of a new donor or honoree.

PUBLIC RECOGNITION:

An appropriate dedication ceremony may be planned and conducted. The donor and their guests, City of Columbus officials, the Library Board, Library Foundation trustees, and the Friends of the Columbus Public Library Board members will be notified at an early date to ensure attendance and participation. A dedication plaque or comparable marking may be erected at the ceremony. All building plaques, signage or other markings must conform to the signage that has been selected for the area in size, design, location, materials and content.

Adopted by the Library Board on 11/12/2015, revised on 8/22/2016.

POSTERS, DISPLAYS, & BROCHURES

No posters shall be exhibited or placed in the Library without permission from library staff. Posters or literature may be removed, and discarded, by library staff without notice.

The Columbus Public Library offers its display case, located in the West entrance to the nonfiction section, to community groups and individuals for the display of civic, cultural, and educational exhibits. Use of the display case is subject to the following rules and regulations.

1. Display cases provide a public forum in which to exhibit educational, cultural or charitable materials. Provision of space for a display does not indicate endorsement by the library.
2. The library assumes no responsibility for damage or theft of any item on exhibit in the library. All items are placed in the library at the owner's risk.
3. The display case may not be used for:

- a) Promotion or representation of partisan or individual candidates' political meetings or events (such as political rallies, demonstrations, movies, fundraisers, promotion, protesting, or endorsement of political candidates or agenda).
 - b) Promotion or representation of specific religious or philosophical/motivational groups.
 - c) Promotion or representation of personal or family interests.
 - d) Promotion or representation of a for-profit business.
 - e) Displays of a polemic or discriminatory nature.
 - f) Display of material which is obscene, defamatory, invades a particular person's privacy, or incites violence.
 - g) Promotion or representation of any activity or purpose that is in violation of local, state, or federal ordinances or laws, including copyright and public performance laws.
4. Determination of the appropriateness of the display or material for posting is solely the decision of the Library Director or delegated representative.
 5. The library will remind a group of their reservation the week before the display case becomes available.
 6. Displays are set up for a two-month period. Displays must be put up in their entirety during the first week of the month, during regular library hours. Displays will then be locked for the duration of the display period. If the display is not put up after one week, the library reserves the right to offer the space to another group or individual for their display. The exhibit must be taken down and removed during the last week of the month. Failure to remove the display by the agreed upon date may result in its removal by library staff.
 7. One designated person, as noted on the display calendar, will be allowed to set up and take down a display. This same person will need to provide a photo ID upon removal of items.
 8. Displays can be reserved for the next calendar year beginning October 1.

PRIVILEGES AND ACCOUNT COLLECTION

As stewards of city property, the Library Board encourages those who have overdue or lost/damaged unpaid items to return those items and pay the fine or to reimburse the Library for their loss or damage. In accordance to the powers of the Library Board under section 51-211 of the Nebraska Revised Statutes, the Library Board instructs the Library Director to suspend the borrowing privileges of any person who has over $10.00 in (a) unpaid fines for overdue library materials, (b) outstanding overdue library materials or (c) unpaid assessments for lost or damaged library materials.

The Library Board of the Columbus Public Library recognizes its on-line registration records are confidential in nature and are to be accessed only when needed. It is further understood that in the process of registering a library patron, the data will be entered into the shared on-line Consortium database. Member libraries will have access to a patron's address and can use that information to contact a patron about fines owed and materials not returned to the member libraries.

When a cardholder turns 19, he or she may sign for his or her own card regardless of having accrued fines as a minor which are the responsibility of the signatory at that time.

Persons in a bankruptcy situation will be handled on a case by case basis after providing the paperwork proving they went through bankruptcy and named the City/Library as a creditor in the bankruptcy action.

The Library Director may limit the number of patron checkouts at his/her discretion.

This policy is a consolidation of the following policies, due to repetition and overlap in subject: "Denial of Library Card to Applicant with Fines or charges at Another Library in the One-Library Consortium;" "Overdues and Circulation;" and "Suspension of Borrowing Privileges." SAFE CHILD POLICY

See also: the Unattended Child policy and the Internet Safety and Use policy

This Safe Child Policy was created to minimize the safety risk to children in the library.

GENERAL:

Staff will not take over parental or child care responsibilities for children who come into the library.

It is the right and responsibility of a parent or guardian to determine what is appropriate material in order to meet personal family standards and guidelines. Therefore, parents are encouraged to accompany their children and to select material with their children or review their children's selections. The library is not responsible for a minor's selection of, or exposure to, print or electronic library materials.

Staff and volunteers will be screened according to City of Columbus and library policy. Staff and volunteers who work with other agencies who may be housed in the library facility will be screened according to City of Columbus and library policy at the tenant agency's expense.

The public will have access to public areas only. To the extent that building design permits, nonpublic areas will be closed off.

STAFF AND VOLUNTEER (OF ANY AGE) CONDUCT BOTH ON AND OFFSITE:

The Library expects exemplary behavior by all its staff and volunteers.

- Touching should be in response to the need of the child, not the need of the adult.
- Touching should be with the child's permission.
- Resistance to touching must be respected.
- Touching must never include the breast, buttocks, or groin.
- Touching should be done in the open, not in private.
- Touching should have a brief, limited duration.

While engaged in library service staff and volunteers will not:

- Smoke or use tobacco products in the presence of children and/or youth.
- Use, possess, or be under the influence of alcohol at any time while volunteering.
- Use, possess, or be under the influence of illegal drugs at any time.
- Strike, spank, shake, or slap children and/or youth.
- Touch a child and/or youth in a sexual or other inappropriate manner.
- Use any discipline that frightens or humiliates children and/or youth.
- Use profanity in the presence of children and/or youth.
- Humiliate, ridicule, threaten, or degrade children and/or youth.
- Use abusive statements such as those that deal with race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, gender, age, sex, or sexual orientation. In addition, physical, emotional, sexual, and ethical abuses are prohibited, as is neglect or endangerment of a child.

If children attempt to climb into a staff member's or volunteer's lap, they should be gently set aside or given to the caregiver.

Staff and volunteers will not be in one-on-one no-visibility situations with children or young people. Doors are not permitted to be closed for one-on-one conversations, assistance, tutoring, etcetera, unless there is a window in the door. Staff and volunteers will always be observable in interactions with children and young people.

Staff and volunteers will never conduct alone an after-hours program involving children or youth.

It is understood that staff and volunteers may have legitimate relationships with minors outside of their contact at the library (e.g. neighbors, family friends, church work, etc.). However, where such an offsite personal relationship does not exist, staff and volunteers may socialize with or contact children and youth they have met at the library providing they have parental or guardian permission, are conducting library business, or are in a public arena.

Staff and volunteers are not permitted to remain alone after closing time with a child. Staff or volunteers will not give a child a ride home. Staff and volunteers will not transport children to or from offsite activities.

Staff and volunteers are mandatory reporters under the law. Any staff or volunteer who witnesses or suspects child abuse or neglect will call the Abuse/Neglect Hotline 1-800-652-1999. Depending on the circumstances, local law enforcement may also be called.

"Any person who willfully fails to make any report shall be guilty of a Class III misdemeanor."

SEARCH WARRANT PROCEDURES

The USA Patriot Act, which was approved by Congress in October, 2001 as a result of the threat of terrorism, allows for search warrants to be issued to libraries for a patron's library records.

Furthermore, the search warrant prohibits divulging to anyone that a patron's library records are the subject of a search. ALA's Office of Intellectual Freedom has been informed that the Freedom to Read Foundation's legal counsel concurs with this prohibition.

The new law requires a search warrant, not a subpoena. A search warrant can be executed immediately, since the judge has already established the existence of "just cause" prior to issuing it. The agent, or officer, serving a search warrant can begin the search as soon as the warrant is served. A subpoena, on the other hand, allows a party a period of time to respond and/or contest the court's order.

If approached by someone claiming he has legal authority to request patron records, first ask for identification and whether the order being served is under the authority of the USA Patriot Act (USAPA). If it is an FBI agent and the authority of the order comes from the USAPA, follow the steps in A, below. If it is not an FBI agent, OR if the warrant is not related to the USAPA, follow the steps in B, below.

A Steps to follow after being served with a search warrant under the authority of the USA Patriot Act:

- 1 Give the warrant, or ask the officer to give it to the Library Director or to the Reference Librarian. Contacts should only be made with either the Library Director or the Reference Librarian as provisions of the act prohibit disclosing information about warrants issued under the USAPA to anyone other than the person authorized to release the records and to the Library's attorney.

- 2 If the law enforcement agent insists that you (at the Circulation Desk) release the information immediately, tell the person that the Library wants to cooperate, but that you do not have the authority to give access to confidential records or information.
- 3 The person in charge (Library Director or Reference Librarian) will ask for a copy of the search warrant if the agent serving it does not provide one.
- 4 The person in charge (Library Director or Reference Librarian) will then access SIRSI Workflows to retrieve the information requested. Provide only the information requested.
- 5 The USAPA prohibits libraries from disclosing information about a search warrant issued under the authority of the Act. To ensure that the Library does not violate this gag order, take the following steps after the agent leaves:
 - Put the warrant in an envelope, seal it, and send it to the Library Director
 - Within that envelope, include a note (on a separate sheet of paper) about who served the warrant and the date of the warrant.
 - The warrant will be kept in the sealed envelope in the Director's Office file.
 - Information about who served the warrant, the date it was served and other non-identifying information will be sent to the City Attorney.
- 6 Under no circumstances can you inform anyone else of the existence of the search warrant. Do not discuss with anyone the FBI visit, the warrant, or the name of whom the search warrant was served.

B Law Enforcement Request for Confidential Information NOT under the authority of the USA Patriot Act.

- 1 Determine if the agent has a written court order.
- 2 If there is no court order:
 - a Explain that a court order is necessary since library policy prohibits the release of any information that discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user or how he/she has used the library.
 - b Explain that the court order must be sent to the Library Director since only he has the authority to release records. Once the order is received, it will be faxed to the City Attorney to ensure that it is complete as required by law. Once attorney approval is secured, the record(s) requested will immediately be released.
 - c If the agent has any questions or does not accept your answer, refer him to the Library Director. If the request occurs after office hours, phone the Library Director at his home.
 - d Make a note of what happened; include date and time, name of officer making request and who the matter was referred to.
- 3 If there is a court order:
 - a Explain that the court order must be sent to the Library Director because he is the only one authorized to release records. Once an order is received by the Library Director, he will fax

- a copy to the City Attorney to ensure that it is complete as required by law. Once the attorney approval is secured, the record(s) requested will be released immediately.
- b If the agent has any questions or does not accept your answer, refer that person to the Library Director. If it is not during business hours, call the Library Director at his home.
 - c Make a report of what happened; include date and time, name of officer making request and who the matter was referred to. This report will become part of the Library's public record.

Adopted by the Library Board on 9/11/2003

STAFF IN CHARGE OF BUILDING AND PERSONNEL

When a need is determined by the Library Director s/he shall designate an acting director in her/his absence. If such a designation is not made, the Reference Librarian will be considered the Acting Library Director. During times when the Library Director or Acting Library Director is not in the building, the ranking supervisor will assume charge of the building and the staff.

If no supervisors are present, the employee scheduled at the Information Desk will assume responsibility.

UNATTENDED CHILDREN

Children are welcome in the library; however, parents and caregivers are responsible for monitoring the activities and regulating the behavior of their children while the children are in the library.

- All children aged 10 years and under shall be adequately supervised by a responsible caregiver at all times. Children shall not be considered adequately supervised if their caregiver is participating in a meeting, class, or program held in a different room. Children under age 11 shall not be considered adequately supervised in the computer lab if the caregiver is not in the lab with them. Caregivers using the computer lab must keep any children under age 11 with them in the lab.
- Caregivers are not required to stay with children during scheduled summer reading programs; however, library staff is not responsible for the supervision and well-being of dropped off children. If the caregiver chooses to leave the building, s/he will be at the library when the program is scheduled to conclude. Persons responsible for children who have special needs related to physical or mental ability, disruptive behavior, emotional problems, lack of adequate attention span, incomplete social skills, or children who cannot take themselves to the restroom...etc., shall remain with their children at all times.
- Children 11 years and older may use the library unattended, subject to the rules and regulations of this library.

If a child 10 years and younger is left unattended, the following procedure will be enacted:

- Staff will notify a supervisor and will stay with the child as they try to locate the responsible person by searching nearby area or paging on the library intercom. If no name is known, page using the child's name or physical appearance.

- When such person is located, staff will explain the library policy in regard to children, and give them a copy of the unattended children policy.
- If the responsible person is not located within a half-hour, or if the library is closing within a half-hour, the staff will notify the police to pick up the child. Staff will remain with the child in the building until the parent or police arrives.

If a child is reported missing staff will:

- Obtain name, age, and description of child.
- Page the child on the intercom.
- Post staff who have the child's description at exits to make sure child doesn't leave if still in the library.
- Check all possible areas (restrooms, etc.) within the library.
- Notify responsible person of your actions.
- Recommend to the parent or the responsible party that the police be notified if the child is not found.

If children who staff feels aren't competent to be left alone or to walk home, are still at the library near closing time, staff will make efforts to locate a responsible party (and document same). As a last resort, call the Police Department who will call Social Services.

Volunteers are expected to act in accordance with library policies and to reflect positive customer service attitudes to all library patrons. Excepting Library Board members and Friends of the Library members, volunteer dismissal will be at the staff's discretion.

HOW TO BECOME A VOLUNTEER OUTSIDE OF JOINING THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

- Volunteers are required to fill out a Volunteer Intake Form and Waiver of Liability unless exempted by the library director.
- The library director or volunteer coordinator will review the completed forms and contact the applicant within one week.
- Volunteers are selected based on their qualifications in relation to the needs of the library at any given time.
- Volunteers under consideration may be subject to a background check.

- Volunteers under age nineteen must have the Volunteer Intake Form and Waiver of Liability signed by a parent or legal guardian, and the parent/guardian information must be written on the intake form.

SUPERVISION

Each volunteer will be given instruction by a staff member or volunteer coordinator. Volunteers should feel free to ask any questions of this person or report any problems or concerns about their assignment. If this supervisor is not available, the volunteer may also discuss any issues or questions with the library director or other staff.

Volunteers are expected to perform their assigned duties to the best of their abilities and to be loyal to the mission, values, goals, and policies of the library. All volunteers should keep their supervisor informed of their work status, and of their comings and goings during volunteering at the library.

VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

Before beginning a volunteer assignment, the staff member in charge will be responsible for the following when applicable:

- Notify the rest of the staff of the volunteer;
- Review job duties and expectations, including making the volunteer aware of the policy manual or the policies online, and let the volunteer know that s/he is responsible for adhering to all policies, including conduct;
- Confirm work dates, times, and anticipated duration of the assignment;
- Provide training on any new skills needed to perform assigned tasks;
- Discuss procedures for obtaining, using, and caring for needed supplies;
- Provide safety orientation;
- Review locations of parking, restrooms, water fountains, first aid kits, and places for personal items such as purses/coats, etc.
